The location of Bos Eglos (Cornish for 'Home by the Church') takes a lot of beating. Situated on a working farm, it is part of a beautiful pastoral landscape; criss-crossed with walks and creeks which you are free to explore. Bos Eglos is located within the grounds of historic Court Farm owned by a local family for generations.

The farm is in the centre of the idyllic, rural village of Pilleigh in the heart of the Roseland Peninsula. The Roseland Inn, a 16th Century country pub providing good, locally sourced food and real ale is within footsteps. The Roseland villages of St Mawes, Portscatho and Veryan are all close by and sandy beaches are a ten minute drive away.

Accommodation

Upper level: Bos Eglos boasts comfortable, spacious and well-equipped accommodation; tastefully restored and finished to a high standard. At the heart of Bos Eglos is an airy and sociable open-plan cooking, dining and living area. Patio doors open out onto a secluded outdoor seating area, surrounded by a lawned garden. The fully fitted kitchen includes an Aga-style cooker, dishwasher, washing machine, microwave and fridge/freezer.

Lower level: 1 double bedroom, 2 twin rooms (both with en-suite showers, sinks & WC) and family bathroom.

Facilities & Services

Oil fired central heating throughout with underfloor heating in all the bathrooms. The Aga-style cooker keeps the living space particularly warm. There is a TV, DVD and music centre in the living room. A barbecue and outside furniture are available on the patio.

Miscellaneous

Linen, electricity and heating are all included. There is one dedicated car parking space and further parking is available if required. Local shops are available in Portscatho (3.8 miles), Veryan (3.7 miles) or St Mawes (5.7 miles). Pubs are available in Pilleigh, Portscatho, St Mawes, Veryan or Ruan Lanihorne (3.6 miles).

Arrival / Departure is Friday
