Jolian Cottage is a delightful, traditional cottage located overlooking Veryan Green in the heart of the Roseland Peninsula. Part of a row of traditional terraced cottages, this is a wonderful village location, just over one mile from the coast and ideal for anybody wanting a good base for exploring the Roseland. Jolian is a small 200 year old cottage with low ceilings and an adorable little walled garden to the front overlooking the Green.

The village of Veryan is famous for its picturesque round houses built by a local clergyman in the 19th century. The Green is on the edge of the village and it is just a short 6 minute walk down to the centre of the village which offers a superb pub in the New Inn and has a local Post office & stores. Spectacular Carne Beach is a short drive away and there are some wonderful coastal walks, particularly around the iconic fishing village of Portloe.

Accommodation

Ground Floor: The little porch and front door lead through to the low beamed lounge with its sofa and comfortable chairs. There is a fireplace with an electric log burning stove type heater. A doorway leads through to the character kitchen with a small range of shelves & cupboards. Again, the kitchen has low beams. A further doorway leads through to the dining room and right at the rear is a good sized utility room and ground floor WC.

First Floor: A narrow set of stairs lead up to the double and twin bedrooms and bathroom. The bathroom has an electric shower over the bath.

Facilities & Services

The cottage has night storage heaters throughout and combined with the electric stove in the lounge keep the property very cosy during winter. There is a cooker & fridge in the kitchen. There is a freezer, washing machine and microwave in the rear utility room. There is a TV & DVD player in the lounge and BBQ facilities in the garden.

Miscellaneous

Bed linen, towels and all electricity are included. There is no phone at Jolian Cottage and mobile reception can be difficult on some networks. Well behaved dogs are welcome. No smoking is permitted. Arrival / Departure day is Saturday or Pilleigh (7 miles). We regret that there is no smoking allowed and pets are not permitted
