

Roslyn Cottage

Location: St Mawes

Accommodates: 5

cornwalls
cottages.co.uk

Quietly located in the centre of St Mawes, up some steps behind the Victory Inn, Roslyn Cottage is a traditional thick cob walled fisherman's cottage overlooking the village towards Summers Beach. A wonderful house, full of character and comfortably furnished, Roslyn is in an absolutely ideal spot in St Mawes.

If you are looking for a traditional cottage in St Mawes then Roslyn Cottage is definitely for you. The three bedrooms each have partial views of St Mawes Bay and there are pretty gardens both front and rear with a south facing patio providing a superb place for summer barbecues. St Mawes is simply an idyllic spot for a holiday. It is perfect for those who want to get out on the water or explore the stunning coastline or the Roseland Peninsula. There are two shingle beaches in St Mawes or some lovely sandy beaches on the St Anthony headland. Staying in St Mawes you would not need your car all week. Everything is within walking distance and the passenger ferries provide regular services around the estuary from the delightful harbour.

Accommodation

Ground Floor Entrance hall leading to the comfortable lounge with its beamed ceiling. The kitchen is in a bright rear extension and is fully fitted with a range of units. The dining room also with a beamed ceiling is open plan and leads off the kitchen. The bathroom with its pine fittings is to the rear and has a wall mounted shower.

First Floor A good sized double bedroom with limited sea views over the front garden. A twin bedded room has lovely views towards Summers Beach and there is a very small single bedroom with a narrow 2'6" bed and drawers underneath.

Facilities and Services

Linen, towels and tea towels are not included although there are pillows and duvets on the beds. Blankets are also provided. Electricity is not included in the price - there is a meter at the property which takes £1 coins. A payphone is provided. The kitchen has a fridge freezer, washing machine and dishwasher. An extra child can be accommodated on a fold out bed if required.

Miscellaneous

Regrettably no pets. No smoking is permitted. There are local shops, pubs and restaurants in St Mawes. Car parking is available in the main St Mawes car park about 5 mins walk away.

Arrival / Departure day is Saturday

Web: www.cornwallscottages.co.uk

Email: info@cornwallscottages.co.uk

Tel: 01872 264441

Cornwalls Cottages Ltd, The Coach House, Carclew St, Truro TR1 2DZ