Set in a peaceful little hamlet, only a few minutes drive from the delightful village of Gorran Haven on Cornwall's south coast, this superb traditional Cornish stone cottage has been entirely refurbished by the Owners over the last few years. The cottage is only a 3 minute drive from the amazing Lost Gardens of Heligan, plus a host of other places to visit are right on your doorstep. This location offers complete peace & tranquillity with only the odd farm tractor passing by on the lane, yet is so accessible from many parts of Cornwall.

The cottage has been completely refurbished over the last few years and now has a fully modernised interior, yet retains so many of the characteristics of a traditional old cottage. The accommodation is very comprehensive and features plenty of space, no matter what the size of your party. There is a particularly spacious landing area on the first floor which is an ideal retreat for the younger generation. The garden is a joy and there is plenty of space to relax to the sounds of the country!

There are some great beaches nearby at Gorran Haven, at Vault Beach, Hemmick Beach or Porthluney Beach near Caerhays Castle. The castle & gardens at Caerhays are open every spring and well worth a visit. There are some excellent pubs nearby, the closest being the Crown Inn at St Ewe, but also plenty to choose from nearby. The harbour town of Mevagissey is worth a visit, but it does get busy in the peak season. The nearest supermarkets are in St Austell and delivery is available. The Eden Project is within a 20 minute drive of the property.
