For those looking for peace & tranquillity, this immaculate cottage is situated on the only working vineyard in the heart of the Roseland Peninsula. This idyllic position is a haven for wildlife & offers the perfect retreat in beautiful countryside. Vineyard Cottage is ideally located on the Roseland with stunning beaches and creekside villages only a few minutes drive away and is within easy reach of stately homes, gardens and the Cathedral City of Truro. The Eden Project is within easy reach as is the Falmouth Maritime Museum which can be reached via the King Harry Ferry or the passenger ferry from St Mawes. If you prefer walking there is a footpath running past the gate that will take you to the Coastal Footpath or delightful creekside walks.

Vineyard Cottage at Lambourne Farm is one of the truly special places to stay on the Roseland Peninsula. This well appointed property has the benefit of a delightful ground level outside area created using stone from Bodmin Moor or a first floor decked area, either of which are a lovely place to relax and enjoy a book, have a BBQ or just enjoy the sounds of the countryside!
